TAPS '21 STAFF ELECTED

L. G. Perritt Made Editor-in-Chief

At the meeting of the Junior Class on April 26th, the staff for Taps '21 was elected. The men are in office: L. G. Perritt, Editor-in-Chief; M. L. Banks, Business Manager; J. C. Owens, Advertising Manager; C. N. Atkinson, Art Department; G. G. Gilmer, Military Book; G. Gage, Satire Book; C. A. Owens, Class and Clubs; W. C. Colbert, Athletics.

All of these men are good men and are well chosen for their respective positions. We look forward to Taps '21 with expectancy.

CLEMSON LOSES IN TRIANGULAR DEBATE

Citadel Wins Debate on Campus and Carolina Wins at Columbia

On Saturday night, the Tiger debaters lost the honors of the State Triangular Debate to their literary brothers from the Citadel and from the University of South Carolina.

The query was one which is so momentous in present-day affairs—"That Immigration Except from English-speaking Races, Should be Prohibited for Three Years After the Signing of the Peace Treaty." At Clemson, the affirmative was upheld by Messrs. E. F. Farmer and O. B. Mills for Clemson, while Messrs. P. J. McLean and H. N. Heckle, of the Citadel, ably defended the negative, winning by a unanimous decision over their opponents. The meeting was presided over by Prof. S. M. Martin. The judges for the occasion were Dr. E. A. Hines and Prof. J. P. Coates, of Seneca, and Prof. W. L. Feaster, of Central. Dr. Hines rendered the unanimous decision. The papers rendered by the debaters were of excellent quality and the large number of statistics showed that much interest had been taken in the preparation of the debate.

The Clemson debaters who journeyed to the capitol to uphold the honors of the A. & M. College were Messrs. G. B. Patrick and M. C. Jeter. The linguists of the University, Messrs. R. C. Thompson and J. J. Stevenson defended the affirmative side of the query for debate. The boys from the foothills lost to the city lads, thus giving to Carolina the winning honors of the Triangular Debate, she having won the negative side of the query from the Citadel team defending the affirmative. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Bennie Poliakoff, a law student at the University. The judges were Rev. R. S. Truesdale, Dr. G. S. Pugh, president of Columbia College, and Mr. Heyward.

This is the second consecutive year that Carolina has won from her cadet opponents.

Miss Marie Eubanks spent Sunday in Greenville.

One is sometimes tempted to wish that the superlative could be abolished, or its use allowed only to old experts. What are men to do when they get to heaven, after having exhausted their vocabulary of admiration on earth?—Holmes.

Meyer-Davis Orchestra Symphonic Experts—Dance Proves to be Wonderful Success.

With the appearance of the Meyer-Davis orchestra on the floor of the dance hall there came jollity, jest, and jazz. Just ask someone who went—he knows—he will never forget it. The cadets were fortunate in having a large number of ladies to grace the hall with their presence, for few indeed were those heart-breaking telegrams which are too often received. Notwithstanding the unusual height of the mercury, the pedular experts fairly bubbled over with pep. The hall was, without a doubt, a merry-go-round of color and joy intermingled. And the waltz? Of all things that were heavenly, the dreamy waltzes were the most divine. The mellow light which was diffused thruout the hall by the cleverly devised plans of illumination made the rhythmical strains of "I Love You Dearly" exceedingly realistic to the dancers. The encoring was most generously responded to by the orchestra, and, with the passing of time, the spirits of gaiety rose higher. However, everything must end some day, and in the early hours of the morn, the Senior dance came to a close, never to be forgotten by a single soul upon whom fortune had smiled on Friday night.

Those who attended are as follows:

Clemson Wins Seven Out of Eleven Firsts in Meet but Loses in Total Points Scored.

With the odds against Clemson in the dashes "Red" Voight proceeded to show the people of Davidson that Murray who had made an enviable record as a sprinter could be beaten. Voight was Clemson's only man in the 100 yard dash and believe me he was enough, as he won first place not only in the 100 but also the 220. His running was the feature of the day. It was not until after the 220 dash did the people of Davidson fully realize that their captain and star sprinter had been beaten.

In the 440 Voight again threatened to walk away with first place, but the old boy had put his best efforts in his previous runs and he had to be contented with third.

Dick for Davidson won first place in the half mile but he was pushed by Going who finished a close second. Gower led the field up to about thirty yards of the finish.

Covington easily won first place in the high jump. In Gentry Davidson has a "freak" jumper. Don't know which part he throws over the bar first but he lands on the last part.

Boggs and Wilkins won first and second in the pole vault.

Colbert ran them out of the park when he started throwing the discus. Colbert bids fair to establish a S. I. A. A. record before the season is over.

Williams made good in the broad jump by separating himself from the earth for a distance of 21.2 feet.

Streibich, Davidson "lion tamer", was introduced to the shot an hour before the meet started. He probably was used to playing baseball with cannon balls because 39.4 feet is a good enough throw for an old timer.

Davidson won first and second in the mile, which proved to be the turning point of the meet, as Clemson had held the lead from the start.

The meet was not settled until the judges had compared the time of the hurdlers. A first and second would have given Clemson the meet. Sanders won first place but Davidson got second and third.

The entertainment accorded the Clemson men is worthy of mention. Our own "Johnny" Schenck proved an excellent host. Our hats are off to the Davidson track team; they beat us fair and square, and it is no dishonor to be beaten by a good team.

Following is a list of the events with the winners in each, in the order in which they finished.

100 yd.—Voight (C), Murray (D), Denniston (D). Time 10 seconds.

Half mile—Dick (D), Going (C), Tucker (D). Time 2 min., 7 sec.

High jump—Covington (C), Green (D), Gentry (D). 5 ft., 8 in.

220 yard—Voight (C), Murray (D), Brice (D). Time 22 2-5 sec.

Pole vault—Boggs (C), Williams (C), Green (D). 10 ft., 6 in.

Discus throw—Colbert (C), Sutton (D), Roberts (D). 116 ft.

Broad jump—Williams (C), Gentry (D), Covington (C). 21.2 ft.

Shot put—Streibich (D), Colbert (C), Roberts (D). 39.45 ft.

440 yard—Murray (D), Brice (D), Voight (C). Time, 53 sec.

1 mile—Tucker (D), Dick (D), Going (C). Time, 5 min., 8 4-5 sec.

Hurdles—Sanders (C), Brice (D), Murray (D). Time, 27 1-5 sec.

TECH WINS TWO STRAIGHT

Boozier, Richbourg and Salley Star

The Tigers journeyed down to the southern metropolis Friday and Saturday to meet the famous Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech. The first game was played Friday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock. It was ideal weather for a ball game and notwithstanding the Atlanta-Mobile game there were quite a few fans in the stands. From the looks of the prologue of practice, victory for the Tigers seemed almost certain. At four o'clock sharp Lieut. Harrison announced the batteries and called the game. The Tigers were the first at the bat. Owens was the first batter to face the Irish south-paw, O'Leary. He got a clean hit over third, but was caught trying to steal second. Boozier hurled for the Tigers and started off in fine style, striking out two men in the first inning. Tech's first run came in the second inning when Boozier tried to catch "Buck" Flowers off first. Flowers was attempting to steal and Boozier threw to Richbourg who tried to catch Flowers going to second, but threw it wild letting Flowers get around to third. He scored on a long outfield ball. It was the little "Buck" who made Tech's other score in the fifth when he tagged up a long fly to Owens and beat the throw home. Our lone score was made by Salley on Richbourg's two-bagger to left-center, the longest ball ever hit on Grant Field. Due to the jinx the Tigers were unable to score again. The Tiger batters were hitting O'Leary freely, but could not land on the pill at the opportune time. The Tigers hit the sphere for four safeties to Tech's three. Boozier pitched a beautiful game. He had the Tech batters eating out of his hand, but due to four costly errors of his teammates Tech was victorious. Salley and Richbourg starred with the stick for Clemson while Flowers hit the ball pretty freely for the Jack-ets. Salley played the field in Ty Cobb style, covering a lot of ground and getting 'em where they weren't. He robbed Flowers of a home run when he got one out of the center field bleachers. Rentz also made some sensational catches in his lot. Both these fielders played with "old Sol" looking right square in their eyes.

Tiger '21 Staff Elected

Webb to Relieve Walker in Handling College Weekly

According to the by-laws laid down for the management of "The Tiger," the electoral board consisting of the President of the Athletic Association, the Secretary of the Alumni Association, the President of the Junior class, four members of Junior Class (appointed by the President), one sophomore, and the retiring editor of the Tiger, met and elected the Tiger staff for 1920-21. The following were elected:

T. J. Webb, Editor-in-chief and Business Manager; A. P. Coles and W. M. Redfern, Associate Editors; G. A. Harrison, News Editor; L. C. Chappell, Circulation Manager; J. J. Bissell, Associate Circulation Manager; F. T. Perry Athletic Editor; G. D. Grice, Associate Athletic Editor; L. G. Perritt, "Y" and Literary Societies; M. T. Dunlap, Alumni Editor.

Webb, the new editor, is the real man for the job. In the past year he has shown himself worthy of the position by the efficient way in which he has held down the non-too-easy place of associate editor. With Jeff at the wheel, we can look forward to a bigger and better Tiger than ever.

Coles and Redfern are rising juniors, both of whom have already taken prominent stands in student activities—Coles particularly in basketball, and Redfern in literary society work. They have shown great interest in the Tiger and all evidence points to their successes as "pen-pushers".

George Harrison, a man with a real personality and one who can manufacture news if need be, fills a new place on the staff—that of news editor. Heretofore this department has been shifted to the shoulders of others, but now with a man behind the department, Tigertown news will never want for advertisement. Harrison is a rising senior, a favorite with everybody on the campus, and a person who will make the Tiger one of the "newsiest" papers of the South.

Chappell has already been proven to be a very efficient associate circulation manager—hence his promotion. He is a rising senior, and everything bids fair to his making the Tiger circulation rival that of the New York Times. The work of his associate, Bissell, has also previously been demonstrated and is far from reproach. With Chappell and Bissell in charge of the circulation, there is no fear of not getting Tigers out on time.

Perry again has the job of sport writing, which he has so ably filled in the past. As his associate, Grice, a rising junior, promises to rival the famous Voight in his most original and varied style. With these two men holding down the athletic pens, the Tiger victories of 1920-21 will be well advertised.

For the "Y" and literary societies Perritt is the man. He takes an unusually big interest in all forms of college activities and especially in "Y" and literary society work. We predict for "L. G." a success at any profession, and know that his ability will help put the Tiger "on top."

Tom Dunlap, an ante-bellum fellow, probably knows as many Clem-

This issue of The Tiger is the last work of the old staff. Throughout the session they have worked unceasingly, and have worked with only one aim—that of making The Tiger the best college newspaper in the South. How far they in this they have succeeded is left for Tiger readers to say. Next week they turn the Tiger over to the new staff for issuance. In the main, the organization of the new staff (the personnel of which is seen elsewhere in this issue) is the same as that of the old staff; however, the few changes, though minor, are intended to make the paper of '20-'21 a more efficient news-carrier than heretofore. The staff of '19-'20 has finished, and hopes that it has pleased you.

Remember, the Junior-Senior banquet is less than a month off, and this year the banquet promises to be the swellest affair that has been pulled off in Tigertown. Invite your girl now, and make sure of having the night of May twenty-first one that won't be lonesome for you. Garber-Davis is going to play for both banquet and dance on this occasion; the gala affair is close at hand; make plans; get ready!

INFORMAL DANCE HELD IN GYM

Saturday Night Sees Enjoyable Hop

Following in the footsteps of the Senior Spring Hop, the little script dance of Saturday night proved to be a great success. The college orchestra furnished excellent music from 8:30 until 11:00 and kept the dancers in a whirl during practically the entire two and a half hours. The affair was made possible because of many ladies who had attended the dance of the previous night and remained over until Sunday morning. Time passed quickly by, and it was with astonishment that the participants heard the statement that the morn of a new day was fast approaching. Thus closed the most enjoyable week-end of jollity which has been experienced in Tigertown in many a moon.

THE HELL-GATE OF SOISSONS

My name is Darino, the poet. You have heard? Oui Comedie Francaise.

Perchance it has happened, mon ami, you know of my unworthy ays.

Ah, then, you must guess how my fingers are itching to talk to a pen;

For I was at Soissons, and saw it, the death of the twelve Englishmen.

My leg, halheureusement, I left it behind on the banks of the Aisne.

Regret? I would pay with the other to witness their valor again. A trifle, indeed, I assure, to give for the honor to tell

How that handful of British, undaunted, went into the Gate-way of Hell.

Let me draw you a plan of the battle. Here we French and your Engineers stood; Over there a detachment of German sharpshooters lay hid in a wood.

A mitrailleuse battery planted on top of this well-chosen ridge Held the road for the Prussians and covered the direct approach to the bridge.

It was madness to dare the dense murder that spewed from those ghastly machines.

(Only those who have danced to its music can know what the mitrailleuse means.)

But the bridge on the Aisne was a menace; our safety demanded its fall:

"Engineers,—volunteers!" In a body the Royals stood out at the call.

Death at best was the fate of that mission—to their glory not one was dismayed.

A party was chosen—and seven survived till the powder was laid.

And they died with their fuses unlighted. Another detachment! Again

A sortie is made—all too vainly. The bridge still commanded the Aisne.

We were fighting two foes—Time and Prussia—the moments were worth more than troops.

We must blow up the bridge. A lone soldier darts out from the Royals and swoops

For the fuse! Fate seems with us. We cheer him; he answers—our hopes are reborn!

A ball rips his visor—his khaki shows red where another has torn.

Will he live—will he last—will he make it? Helas! And so near to the goal!

A second, he dies! Then a third one! A fourth! Still the Germans take toll!

A fifth, magnifique! It is magic! How does he escape them? He may . . .

Yes, he does! See, the match flares! A rifle rings out from the wood and says "Nay!"

Six, seven, eight, nine take their places; six seven, eight, nine brave their hail;

Six, seven, eight, nine—how we count them! But the sixth, seventh, eighty, and ninth fail!

A tenth! Sacre nom! But these English are soldiers—they know how to try;

(He fumbles the place where his jaw was)—they show too, how heroes can die.

Ten we count—ten who ventured unquailing—ten there were—and ten are no more!

Yet another salutes and superbly esays where the ten failed before.

God of Battles, look down and protect him! Lord, his heart is as Thine—let him live!

But the mitrailleuse splutters and stutters, and riddles him into a sieve.

Then I thought of my sins, and sat waiting the charge that we could not withstand.

And I thought of my beautiful Paris, and gave a last look at the land.

At France, my belle France, in her glory of blue sky and green field and wood.

Death with honor, but never surrender. And to die with such men—it was good.

They are forming—the bugles are blaring—they will cross in a moment and then . . .

When out of the line of the Royals (your island, mon ami, breeds men)

Burst a private, a tawny-haired giant—it was hopeless, but ciel! how he ran!

Bon Dieu, please remember the pattern, and make many more on his plan!

No cheers from our ranks, and the Germans, they halted in wonderment too;

See, he reaches the bridge; ah, he lights it! I am dreaming, it cannot be true.

Screams of rage! Fusillade! They have killed him! Too late, though, the good work is done.

By the valor of twelve English martyrs, the Hell-Gate of Soissons is won!

—Herbert Kaufman.

JACKETS STING TIGERS TWICE

Umpire: Harrison (Georgia).

Second Game

The second game was called Saturday evening at 3:30. Susie Owens started the game off for the Tigers. He had plenty of steam and kept his hits scattered for a while. Susie pulled himself out of some very bad holes three consecutive times. Tech's first run was made in the second when there were three men on and Harris received a hot one and shot it to Hagood who dropped it in the mixup. In the second frame Hagood got our first hit that went for two bases. He was scored by Hartzell's hit to center. Hartzell stole third and was pushed home by Crisp's hit to center. "Colie" stole second and in sliding sprained his lame knee. Rentz took Crisp's place in left. Our other two runs came in the sixth when Harris scored on Richbourg's long three bagger to center field, then Richbourg came in on Hagood's hit. It was in the sixth that Tech had three men on and one out and the Tigers came out of the hole. Rentz saved the day again when he caught a skyscraper in deep left. The Tigers now held the Jackets 4 to 1, but Owens was being hit pretty freely so coach sent in Booser in the seventh to relieve him. Before Owens retired he walked Wheeler with the bases filled. In the eighth Ingram got to first on an error, Flowers advanced him to second, and he scored on Settle's hit. Barron hit a long two-bagger scoring Settle, this tying the score. The winning run came in the tenth when Rentz dropped Buck Flowers fly; Settle was hit by Booser and Flowers scored on a wild throw from Booser to Hagood.

Both these games were the best played on Grant Field this year, notwithstanding our losing them. The individual stars of both games were Salley in center field and Richbourg at the bat for Clemson, and Flowers at the bat and on second for Tech.

MILITARY INSPECTION HERE TOMORROW

Board From General Staff to Inspect
Cadet Corps

The following letter has been received from the War Department by Col. Cummins relative to the annual inspection by the General Staff.

March 30, 1920.
Captain Joseph M. Cummins, Inf.,
Prof. Mil. Science and Tac.,
Clemson Agricultural College,
Clemson, S. C.

My dear Sir:
Your institution has been recommended for inspection by the General Staff for the purpose of determining the relative standing of its Military Department in comparison with other educational institutions with a view to its being designated in War Department orders and publications as one of the fifteen "Distinguished Colleges."

A Board of three officers desires to make the above indicated inspection on or about the following dates, April 28-29. The exact dates and time of arrival of the Board for the inspection will be furnished you as early as possible.

In order that the inspection may be accomplished with facility and with convenience to all concerned the following tentative plan of the Board for conducting the work is furnished for your information. The plan is intended to be elastic and the Board will be very glad to accept such changes as conditions at your institution may cause you to make. It is requested that following this tentative plan as a general guide you cause such definite arrangements to be made as will best secure the desired results.

1. Duration about one hour.

(a) During what years is military training compulsory?

(b) What are the defects, if any, in regard to the system of the institution of enforcing discipline?

(c) To what extent, if any, is active support of the Professor of Military Science and Tactics by the faculty defective?

(d) To what extent do other departments of instruction at the institution cooperate with the military department?

(e) To what extent, if any, is the clerical assistance afforded by the institution inadequate?

(f) To what extent, if any, is the assistance in handling property afforded by the institution inadequate?

(g) What percent of the total number of eligible students on the date of inspection is enrolled in the R. O. T. C.?

(h) What percent of the number of members of the R. O. T. C. at the last date of formation of the membership of the advanced course were eligible for such course are on the date of inspection included in such course?

(i) What percent of eligible members of the advanced R. O. T. C. course have promised to attend this year's R. O. T. C. camps?

(j) What percent of eligible members of the basic R. O. T. C. course have promised to attend this year's R. O. T. C. camps?

2. Duration of about one hour.

The Board would like to be shown the following training and instruction facilities:

(a) Facilities for indoor drill.

(b) Facilities for care of arms, equipment, material, and animals.

(c) Facilities for practical indoor instruction such as sand tables, relief maps, etc.

(d) Facilities for indoor instruction in rifle practice.

(e) Office, recitation and assembly room facilities.

The Board would also like to see the general plan or program of instruction and detailed schedules amplifying the general program.

(Note: The Board will observe outdoor drill and field exercise facilities during outdoor inspections and will visit the target range if not too distant at some period of its visit to the institution.)

3. Duration about one and one-half hours.

The Board would like to see actual working demonstration of and to have thoroughly explained the customary methods of conducting class room, assembly room, or laboratory instruction in the following fundamentals common to all arms for the purpose of thoroughly acquainting the students with theory and principles:

Drill regulations of appropriate arm of service.

Care, handling and use of arms and equipment.

Hygiene and First Aid.

Minor Tactics.

Topography.

4. Duration about one and one-half hours.

The Board would like to see actual working demonstration of and to have thoroughly explained the customary methods of conducting class room, assembly room or laboratory instruction pertaining to the appropriate special courses of the various arms or services for the purpose of thoroughly acquainting students with theory and principles. The Board desires to see each of the R. O. T. C. units at the institution engaged in this work and may call upon units for demonstrations of theoretical instruction in the following specialties:

Infantry: Infantry marching, musketry, Infantry combat, Field engineering.

Cavalry marching, Hippology, Cavalry tactics.

Field Artillery: Driving and draft, Field Gunnery, Conduct of fire.

Coast Artillery: Guns and howitzers, Orientation, Gunnery.

Engineers: Care and use of Engineer equipment including special equipment. Field Engineering.

Signal Corps: Visual signalling, Communication systems.

Motor Transport: Equipment. Automotive engineering, operation of convoys.

Ordnance: Ordnance and Gunnery.

5. Duration about one and one-half hours.

The Board requests that a formal review and inspection of all the R. O. T. C. units at the institution be arranged in such field equipment as has been furnished to the institution.

6. Duration about one-half hour.

The Board would like to see demonstrations of the customary methods of conduct of Physical Training and to have thoroughly explained the physical training system of the institutions.

7. Duration of about one and one-half hours.

The Board would like to have demonstrated:

(a) The ability of the individual student to appreciate and to respond to disciplinary control in Infantry close order drill or its equivalent in arms or services other than Infantry.

(b) The ability of members of the sophomore class to act as instructors and leaders of the Infantry squad or its equivalent.

Note: It is desired that (a) and (b) above be combined in an exhibition of the "supervised small group system" of instruction with leaders of squads changing frequently. A prearranged demonstration is not desired, but the Board will call for certain movements and exercises.)

8. Duration of about one hour.

The Board would like to see demonstrations of:

(a) Disciplinary close order drill, gun drill and mounted drill—school of the platoon, company, troop or battery exhibiting student leadership ability in the junior and senior classes.

(b) Extended order drill and deployments, platoon and company.

(Note: Use supervised group system of directing training whenever possible. A prearranged demonstration is not desired but the Board will call for certain movements and exercises.)

9. Duration of about three hours.

The Board would like to have the organization held in readiness for field exercises. The Board will call for the practical solution of small problems in minor tactics, field engineering problems, etc., appropriate to the arm or service of the R. O. T. C. unit represented, and will also request demonstrations of the conduct of tactical walks, terrain exercises, etc. In case conditions with regard to drill grounds and instruction areas at the institution are not available for field exercises the Board requests that an alternative be suggested which will indicate to the Board the efficiency of practical instruction in the elements of field service.

Yours very truly,
W. T. MERRY,
Colonel, Infantry.

QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS

Test for a Girl's Affection for You

Collect and concentrate her affections; add a drop of interest by relating some pathetic event. If she dissolves into tears, you may know she is not of the acid group, and that her specific gravity is great. Now boldly drop your arm around her waist; if she flames up and burns with indignation, it is at once seen that she has been too much oxidized; but if there is a precipitation around your neck, you know that she is of a combinable element. Carefully collect the precipitate, and preserve it for future use.

"So live that you don't care whether the telephone girl listens in or not."

YOUR TRADE INVITED

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Calhoun

The society was called to order by the president, Mr. Baker; and was led in prayer by Mr. Washington. After the roll call by the secretary, the regular program was taken up.

The orator, humorist, and reader were absent. Mr. Baker, the declaimer, had a very good selection, which was well delivered and very interesting. The debate was very good indeed, the query being, "Resolved, that all ex-soldiers should be given a bonus of one dollar for each day of service." The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. Madden and Dunlap; the negative by Messrs. Washington and Trotter. Many very interesting and weighty points were brought out on both sides. However, after a careful consideration by the judges, they returned their decision in favor of the negative.

There being no further business, the society adjourned until the next regular meeting.

Columbian

The Columbian Literary Society held its regular weekly meeting on Friday night. The society was called to order by the president, Mr. Kolb, and the devotional exercises were conducted by Mr. Leland. Several men on the program were absent, due probably to the attractions of the Senior dance. However a very creditable program was rendered.

Mr. C. Huggins, declaimer, gave a very interesting account of a school boy's recitation on "Cats". Mr. Huggins always gives the society something "different", and that is what everybody enjoys—a little variation sometimes. Mr. W. M. Dunlap, the humorist of the evening, gave some very good jokes. The debate as a whole, was very good, considering the fact that very little direct dope concerning the query could be secured. The query was, "Resolved, that the peace treaty should not be made a political question in the next presidential election. The affirmative was upheld by Messrs. E. L. Rogers and F. M. Thompson, while Messrs. W. B. Lawhorn and G. C. Martin defended the negative. Both the house and the judges decided unanimously in favor of the negative.

The society had a very distinguished visitor Friday night, and one of whom the society is justly proud, Mr. B. O. Williams, of the class of '18. Mr. Williams took an active interest in our society work while he was at Clemson, and every body thoroughly enjoyed the helpful remarks which he made.

After a report from the various committees, the society adjourned.

HENRY S. JOHNSON TO SPEAK FOR ALUMNI

To Speak in Place of J. F. Sullivan
on Alumni Night

Mr. J. Frank Sullivan who was elected as Alumni orator for 1920 finds it impossible to be present during commencement. The alternate is Mr. Henry S. Johnson, '10, of Aiken, S. C.

Johnson is employed in the Extension Service of South Carolina and is at present District Agent. This indicates that Johnson is an all round good man and we may expect to hear something good commencement.—J. C. L.

Daddy Potts: "I am going to write my thesis on 'The Disease of the Lower Hind Leg of the Horse'."

ALUMNI

M. S. Covin, '18, was a visitor on the campus the past week end. He is in the mercantile business with his father in Willington, S. C.

W. K. Snelgrove, '18, was married to Miss Elizabeth Harrison of Anderson, S. C., on Wednesday, Apr. 14.

The following alumni attended the Senior dance Friday night: C. S. Major, '16, G. Gaines, '19, J. S. Watkins, '19, J. A. Middleton, '18, W. L. Austin, '19, and W. J. Kennerly, '19.

W. M. Perry, Jr., '14, is now associated with the Perry-Mann Electric Co., Columbia, S. C.

E. E. Reeves, '19, is studying medicine at Vanderbilt University.

L. H. Hamrick, '19, is taking a Textile course at Boston Tech.

H. B. West, '18, completed the students' training course with the Westinghouse Mfg. Co. a few months ago. He has a good position with the above named company.

R. T. Wilkins, '19, is with the Southern Bell Telephone Co.

R. C. Hicks, '19, attended the Tech-Clemson baseball game in Atlanta Saturday.

R. J. Ellison, '18, is selling fertilizer in Dillon, S. C.

CENTENARY HAS 13,000 JOBS FOR COLLEGE GRADUATES

Thirteen thousand professional openings for young men and women with college training in practically any department of arts or science are being created by the Centenary expansion of the Methodist Episcopal Church during the next four years, according to announcement by the Life Service department of that denomination. Graduates of technical, and professional schools are also included in the demand.

Each year 675 teachers will be required in Methodist colleges, normal, intermediate and primary schools, kindergartens, orphanages and day nurseries; 350 recreational and educational directors in rural communities, sociological experts and foreign language settlement workers for industrial centers, church managers, and secretaries, industrial, mechanical and agricultural experts, graduates of technical, medical and nurses' training schools, besides 1850 ministers.

These appointments are for all parts of the earth, far and near, where colleges, schools, orphanages, hospitals and demonstration farms are maintained by the various departments of the Methodist Episcopal Church organization. Many of the appointments will be filled by applicants who come through the Student Volunteer Movement with chapters in nearly every college in the United States. The program which creates this demand for college graduates is based upon the $113,000,000 Centenary fund, raised recently by the Methodist Episcopal Church for a general expansion of its activities.

ROYSTER'S FERTILIZERS

There is a Royster brand for every crop. The Practical experience of 31 years is combined with the scientific experience of highly paid experts, with the results that the FBR brands, for whatever purpose, give the correct proportions of plant food derived from the materials particularly suited to the crop for which it is intended. The difference in production attests the effectiveness of these methods.
